A GREETING

If we knew each other better,
You and I and all the rest,
Seeing down beneath the surface
To sorrows all unguessed,
We would quit our cold complaining
And a hand of trust extend.
If we knew each other better
We could count each one a friend.

We can know each other better
If we take the time to try,
Little deeds of loving kindness
Make a better by and by;
Just a look of understanding
Brings a touch with all mankind.
We can know each other better --
Yes--seeking, we shall find.

PREFACE

For what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away.

James 4:14

It has been said that our life on this earth is only a "Little gleam of time between two eternities". It is only too true, and much as we wish we could have known our ancestors before us and our descendants yet to come, it isn't given to us to do so.

We fondly hope then that this book will serve as a next-best substitute. Although the account of each of us herein must necessarily be brief, perhaps we will take pause to reflect upon the qualities of character, the motivations and ambitions, the many things about our forebears that helped make us what we are. And in turn, those who come after us may ponder on the brief sketch of us who will have lived in their long ago and pass in unconcious but kindly, we hope, judgement upon us.

It is for these latter especially, the children now living and those unborn that we undertook to revise and bring up to date this volume, so as to acquaint them in some small measure with those who lived before.

It has been an arduous task, but a rewarding one. Rewarding because of a feeling, whether or not justified, of some good accomplished and because of the many words of encouragement and many favorable comments, indicating a great deal of interest in the completion of this revision.

Without this encouragement and the assistance of so many that we cannot name them, this work would not have been possible. We do wish to thank those who assisted in so many ways, i.e., typing, furnishing addresses, replying so promptly to our questionnaire, etc.

It is possible that some errors may have occurred in a project wherein there were so many names and dates. We have endeavored to make this account as accurate as humanly possible and believe that any errors will be minor ones for any such we duly beg your pardon.

We have undertaken this work in a spirit of humble and prayerful contemplation. In like manner we entrust the result to your consideration.

Goodspeed - 10.00

NOTICES AND EXPLANATIONS

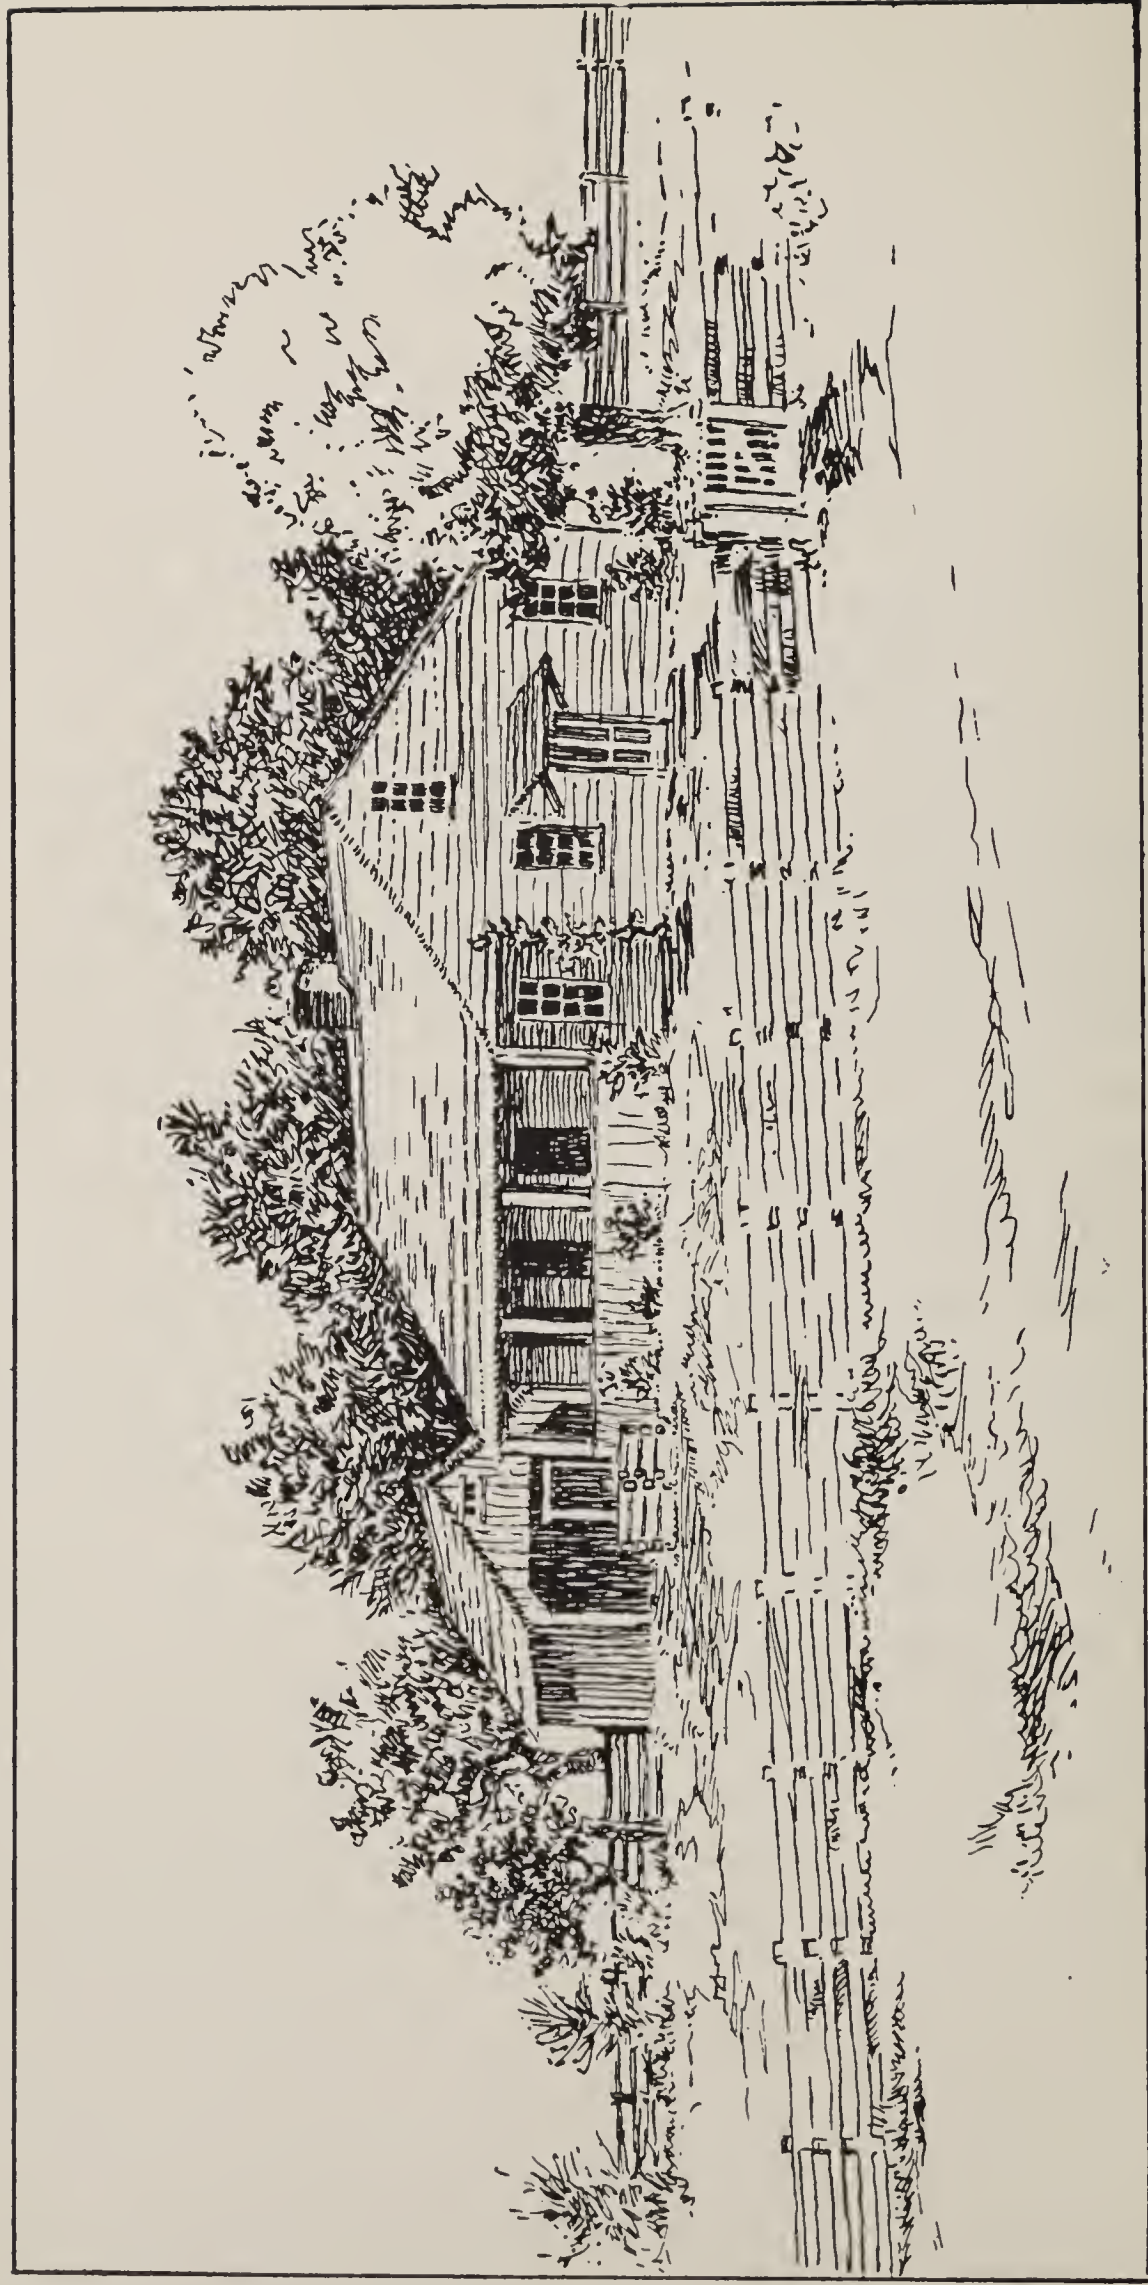

To find lineage: Look in the index for your name and page. The number before your name is your number. Take the number following your name, which will be your father or mother's number (only direct descendants are numbered), follow their number in the same way and it will give his or her parent's number, and so on to the beginning.

An asterisk (*) preceding a name denotes a completed record.

There are names of some new born children registered in our book after the system of numbering had been completed. They will be given the letter A and the same number as the preceding one. If two names have been added the first will be A and the second B. If an only child, the number will be the same as the father or mother descendant with with the letter A added.

ORIGINAL GETZ, KOCH AND WELK HOMESTEAD
AS IT APPEARED IN 1860

A sketch taken from picture painted by P. J. Neuswanger of Silverton, Oregon, of the home first owned by Ludwig Getz. Two families the Ludwig Getz's and George Welks's lived here together, from about 1860 to 1865. In 1865 George Welk purchased the home, they continued living there until 1872, when he sold to Kasper Koch.

During the year 1861 when Getz's and Welk's lived there, two children were born in one week; they were John Welk born January 9 and Peter L. Getz on January 16. On April 18, 1863 Louis Welk and Chris Getz were born during the same night. Others born here are George Welk, September 28, 1866. Magdalena Welk, February 28, 1869 and she died February 4, 1870. Eliza (Welk) Ackerman, January 29, 1871. Benj. C. Koch son of Katherine Getz and Kasper Koch, born May 24, 1873.

Deaths occuring in this home were Peter Getz, (father of Ludwig Getz, Hanna Welk and Katherine Koch) who died July 16, 1873 and Kasper Koch died May 24, 1875.

After the death of Kasper Koch, his wife and family moved to a farm nearer Tremont, Illinois, so this home was rented to Chris Bahr who lived there from about 1876 to 1879.

From 1879 to 1884 Magdalena (Koch) Winzeler and husband Jacob Winzeler resided here. Three of their children were born there: Sarah July 27, 1880, Hanna February 28, 1882 and Lydia November 20, 1883.

After the Winzeler's moved, Heiniger's rented the farm about one year; then in 1885 Mary (Koch) Neuswanger and husband John Neuswanger came to live there. Two of their children were born in this house. P. J. Neuswanger May 24, 1885 and Katie born January 12, 1887. The house stood a few years after Neuswanger's moved out, to a new home on the same farm, after which the old homestead was torn down.

John Neuswanger was owner of this farm until after his death in 1937, it was then sold to Sam J. Getz of Morton, Illinois.

FOUNDING OF APOSTOLIC CHRISTIAN CHURCHES IN MORTON, ROANOKE AND TREMONT

The Morton, Roanoke and Tremont churches were the first Apostolic Christian churches to be build in the state of Illinois.

The original Roanoke Apostolic Christian Church, a frame structure, was located two miles west, one mile south and one-half mile west of Roanoke and built in the year of 1864 or between the years of 1864 and 1865. At the same location stands the present (1940) new Brick Church. The Church Cemetery lies directly east on the same grounds.

The first Elder of the Roanoke Church was Rev. Benedict Weyeneth from 1865 to 1887; the second Rev. Conrad Fehr from 1887 to 1902; the third Rev. Michael Mangold from 1902 to 1930; the fourth Rev. David Mangold from 1934 to

The first Morton Apostolic Christian Church was built in 1867. In 1891 this building was demolished to replace a large two-story frame building with a seating capacity of about 750 on the second floor. On December 12, 1912 this building was completely destroyed by fire, started by a Christian Messer who was pronounced and sentenced as a religious fanatic. He apparently secluded himself in the building on Wednesday night during the Church services inasmuch the fire was started about 4:00 A.M. on the following morning.

In 1913 the present two-story Brick building was built with a seating capacity on the second floor of approximately 1,000 at an estimated cost of $50,000.

NORTH VIEW OF TREMONT APOSTOLIC CHRISTIAN CHURCH

SOUTH VIEW OF TREMONT APOSTOLIC CHRISTIAN CHURCH BUILT 1881

The first Church of the Apostolic Christian Sect in the vicinity of Tremont, Illinois, was built about 1870 near the home of Michael Reuter (who was one of the first ministers and elders) just north of the Dillon Cemetery, about one mile north of the town of Dillon, Illinois. It was a small rectangular structure, which soon became inadequate for the needs of the fast-growing religious group.

In the year 1881 a larger Church (of which several views are shown here) was erected. The large part is a new auditorium, the small part in the rear of the building pictured is the old church, which had been removed from the old site near Dillon, Illinois, and was thereafter used as a diningroom and kitchen.

This Church was erected on the Kasper Koch farm, one and one-half miles south of Tremont, Illinois, and was located on the corner just across the road from the Koch homestead, (farm now owned by Jacob Meyer).

About the year 1908 a group separated from the Church, building a new Brick Veneer Church in Tremont, Illinois. In 1909 the remaining Congregation erected a large new building also in the town of Tremont.

These views are reprinted from several old photos taken in 1909 by Dan R. Koch.

The Katherine Getz Koch Line

3—Katherine Getz, (1) daughter of Peter Getz and Katherine Kres, was born November 23, 1831, in Schweinfurt-Bavaria Germany.

After she became engaged to Kasper Koch, she came to America to be married. Her parents didn't approve of her traveling alone, so finally consented to allow a younger brother (Peter), to accompany her. They arrived at their destination, which was Tremont, Illinois on January 1, 1856.

On January 10, 1856 Katherine Getz was united in marriage to Kasper Koch (son of Andrew Koch and Eva Kohl). Born July 29, 1825, in Schweinfurt-Bavaria, Germany.

Kasper Koch was a farmer and the first year they were married, they lived with Michael Reuter (Mrs. Reuter being a sister of Kasper Koch). Then for fifteen years they lived in the brick house east of the Reuter home (the Neuswanger place). About 1872 they bought the George Welk farm, the house they lived in was standing northeast of the Dillon Cemetery.

Eleven children blessed their home. May 24, 1875, after only a few days illness, Kasper Koch died, leaving his widow with this large family, to carry on alone. Her eldest child, David, being only 19 years old and the youngest, Benjamin, 2 years old, but she continued farming, the children all helping. A short time before Kasper Koch's death he had purchased another farm one mile south of Tremont, Illinois (now the Walter Meyer farm), so his wife and family moved there soon after his death.

Katherine Getz Koch spent her last few years with her daughter, Hanna (Mrs. Chris Sinn). Died April 6, 1911 at the age of 79 years and 5 months.

The Henry Getz Line

5—Henry Getz (1) son of Peter Getz and Katherine Kres. Born December 19, 1835 in Bonfeld, Wurtemberg, Germany.

His occupation in Germany was dyeing materials. He was the first one of his family to come to America, that being in the year 1854. He came to Peoria on the "Rocket" a wood burning locomotive which pulled the first passenger train into Peoria, Illinois, from Rock Island, Illinois, on November 7, 1854. With him came the George Wenger family. He married February 9, 1858, Hanna Wenger, (daughter of George Wenger and Hackner). Hanna Wenger was born in Helmhoff-Hessen, Germany, on September 21, 1840, and died September 6, 1910.

Henry Getz was engaged in farming after coming to America. When he was first married, he and his wife lived near Roanoke, Illinois for a short time, and from there they moved south of Morton, Illinois, to the farm now owned by Frank Hoffman: next they lived south of Tremont, Illinois on the Benjamin Getz place. About 1879 they moved to Greenwood County, Kansas, and lived there five years, and after that coming back to Tremont again and lived on the farm now owned by J. C. Schweigert. In the year 1906 he and his family moved to Monte Vista, Colorado, and that is where Mr. and Mrs. Getz spent their remaining years. Henry Getz died September 13, 1914. His body was brought to Tremont, Illinois and burial was in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Andrew Koch and Eva Kohl

1—Joh. Andreas Koch son of Joh. Michael Koch and Anna Elizabeth Wigand. Born June 8, 1782, auf dem Deutschhof in Schweinfurt, Germany. Died March 16, 1847. Married May 30, 1817, Anna Eva Klara Kohl, (daughter of Johann Michael Kohl and Magdalene Wienmuller). Born August 14, 1791, in Platz in Bruckenau in Schweinfurt, Germany. Died April 7, 1845.

Very little is known about the life of Andrew Koch. He was a Stage Coach driver, taking his coach from station to station daily, using eight horses, he riding on one of the first two. One day he had Napoleon Bonaparte as a passenger, and his orders were to drive as fast as possible and to keep this speed whether going up the mountain or down. He had great fear for the safety of all the passengers, but the orders were carried out. At one time there was great danger that the coach and horses might slip down a steep incline, so he took his feet from the stirrups and prepared to jump to safety if necessary, but all reached their destination safely.

Born September 29, 1819. Died February 20, 1881. According to quotations taken from records in Schweinfurt, Germany, on January 8, 1850, Mr. and Mrs. Reuter withdrew from the Evangelical-Protestant Church, because they were not allowed to worship according to conscience, this withdrawing caused them a great deal of trouble.

In 1854 the Reuter's accompanied by Kasper Koch, (a brother of Mrs. (Reuter's), Johann Andreas Braun and with others, emigrated to America, traveling west as far as Illinois and finally settling near Dillon, Illinois. Michael Reuter purchased land about one mile north of the little village of Dillon. (This farm is now owned by Ralph Koch).

Michael Reuter was minister and elder of the Apostolic Christian Church. The first Church of this denomination being built in that vicinity was erected near the Reuter home, just north of the Dillon Cemetery.

Michael Reuter and his wife Magdalene are buried in the Dillon Cemetery. There were no children.

Kasper Koch

4—Kasper Koch (1) son of Andrew Koch and Eva Kohl. Born in Bavaria-Schweinfurt, Germany, July 29, 1825.

As a youth he planned to study music, the Violin being his choice of instrument. While away studying music the food he had to eat was not as good as he had been accustomed to getting, so he decided to change his vocation to one in which he was assured of something good to eat at all times; he became a baker.

He continued with this occupation until his health failed and he was forced to return to his home. His work had taken him about 200 hours away from home. (Distance was measured by hours, because in those days people traveled from place to place by walking, and the average person was able to walk 3 miles in one hour). After he had traveled a part of the way home he became very ill and was unable to walk any farther, he collapsed on a bench outside of a Wertz Haus (Tavern). The waitress there gave him some strong black coffee to drink, and after resting a while he was again able to continue on, finally reaching his home safely.

One of the first persons he inquired about after reaching home was his close friend, Andreas Braun, he was told, this friend had become a member of a new religious sect in that vicinity. After meeting and associating with his friend and the others, Kasper Koch soon became of like mind and had a desire to become a member of the same faith, later being baptized by Rev. Samuel Frohlich in Strassburg, France.

The following quotations, taken from Police records in Schweinfurt, Germany (By Samuel Braun a son of Andreas Braun and translated from German to English by Guy Braun a grandson), will tell some of the problems he and others encountered after becoming one of the "Christian Congregation" in Bavaria, Germany.

Journey-man shoemaker Johann Andreas Braun, resident here appears with this petition:

In this city 14 persons, male and female, have united for a confession of faith which is founded entirely upon biblical principles.

I am the fiance of Katherine Schmidt, who also is a member of this congregation, and both of us can no longer belong to the Evangelical Church; therefore we request the gracious intercession of the city council that we may be recognized as a "Christian Congregation," in Bavaria.

Johann Andreas Braun,
In testimony thereof,
Arndt.

Confession of faith and Constitution of a Christian Congregation in Bavaria and above all in Schweinfurt as a communication of the highly-honored and respected Government.

The undersigned members of the most holy faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of Majesty—(who according to Jas. 2, 1 and 1 Cor. 5, 16, 17 is no respecter of persons, but values and judges every person according to his inner worthiness before God)—follow this summons on the part of the honorable Government, to talk about ourselves and to tell what we are (Acts 26, 1 and the following)

To be sure, we are well known in respect to our outward station and life; but we are less known in respect to our inward stand and faith before God, and therefore bound to give account of the hope that is in us (Peter 3, 15-16) to everyone who asks us for the reason; most of all to the Government which should judge whether the citizens are beginning something which is disadvantageous to the welfare of the state. We gladly submit to such impartial examination since we are convinced that we are neither detrimental nor harmful to human society, but rather a blessing as children of the faith of Abraham. (1 Moses 12, 2-3; Gal. 3, 7-5. 29.)

Now in regard to our faith we say wholeheartedly with the Apostle Paul: "We confess that according to the way which is called a sect, we thus serve the God of the fathers, that we believe all that is written in the Law and in the Prophets, casting our hope on God, which they also await, that the resurrection of the dead, the just and the unjust, will take place. But in this expectation we strive and practice to have a clear conscience toward God and men." (Acts 24, 14-16.)

The characteristic feature of our faith in Jesus Christ, the Lord of Majesty, therefore consists in this that this faith of ours is not a mere matter of form, not mere learning, not mere confession before men, but permeates our whole heart, sanctifies our whole life as divine strength. We leave it to each and everyone to judge whether our faith in Jesus Christ should be considered less (or inferior) than the usual faith of men just because our faith passes into our lives as a power of sanctification, in love to God and to man. The reason for our separation from the established church is also founded on this difference, not by our human volition, but through God's grace and summons, because the faith which does not produce a new life through Christ is a different faith from the one which the Apostles of the Lord had taught. (Ephes. 4, 1 and the following) The strength of faith has been lost as well as the light of faith. (Matth. 5, 13-16.)

But when we are asked whence our faith in Jesus Christ received this light and this strength, we answer briefly and truly; from the baptism in Jesus Christ in which the promise of God to us was fulfilled, that he would give to those who believe in Jesus Christ and let themselves be baptized in His death His Holy Spirit, who makes it not only possible, but also easy to lead a new life according to Christ's image (Rom. 6) a thing which is not possible to human endeavor. That is then no longer a barren command and a moral-patchwork, but the product of God's power; and thus all should be who call themselves after Christ and confess Him by word of mouth. (Timothy, 2-19.)

Now just as we are considered a sect on account of our baptism in Jesus Christ, and are despised and cast off by men as if by that we had invented something strange and new, when we merely obeyed the command and order of the Lord with all our heart (Rom. 6-17); thus we on our part also can no longer have any spiritual (or church) communion with those who despise us because of the truth of Jesus Christ and who cast us off as a sect (Timothy, 3-5), and whose faith is death and unproductive for bringing forth a holy, godly life, such as was in Christ Jesus and was made manifest. (Jas. 2-20 and the following, 1 John 1, 2-7). He who does not have the life of Jesus Christ, denies Christ Himself as the One who gained and brought back life from death. (John 2-22 and the following.)

The true baptism in Christ, of which there is only one just as there is only one true faith for salvation, therefore stands between two types or manifestations of belief; for in order to become partakers of Christ (Heb. 3-14) one must proceed from faith to faith, as the apostle says, (Rom. 1-17) "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith"; and still there is only one faith, just as the Father and the Son are One God. The first deed of faith, which must precede baptism and proceeds from the preaching of the Word of God, avails for the justification of the wicked sinner in the eyes of God (Rom. 3-22 and the following, 5-1; 10-4 and the following.) The other faith flows and results from the baptism of him who first believed, and gives the baptized one strength in Christ to do the will of God, and to overcome the world to sanctification for the day of deliverance. (Gal. 2-20; 5-6; 6-15; 1 Cor. 7-19; 1 John. 5-4 and the following.)

We have and embrace absolutely no other faith than the one which God's Word teaches and gives us, in which we also find both the best precept and safest rule for establishing a congregation of such called believers, as was done at the time of the Apostles.

To be sure, in Schweinfurt and in general in Bavaria, there are as yet not many of us of that faith, nor do we use human means to persuade anyone thereto, but on the contrary we restrain those in whom we do not find divine manifestations of preceeding grace, repentance in God and faith in Jesus, and we exclude those who do not live according to their confession and in a way worthy of the Gospel; but we are united in one body and spirit of Christ with all the consecrated in the whole world, and not only with those who really live on earth, but also with those who have already preceded us beyond the grave to await with us the future revelation and glorification of the children of God. (Rom. 8-14-19.)

That is our confession of faith, whereby we are not concerned with art and wisdom but only with truth and conformity with God's Holy Word and Will, and whence it also follows that we have adopted neither a new faith nor a new baptism (i.e. are neither sectarians nor anabaptists) but the age-old, original command which from the beginning we have had and received from God to obey. (John 2-7.24; 2 John. 6-10.)

We appeal to the toleration and public protection on the part of our highly respected Government which has been ordained by God, with the greater assurance since we are loyal and obedient subjects, having the honor to remain, Schweinfurt, Jan. 20, 1854.

To His Majesty, the King of Bavaria.
 Our Honorable Sovereign.

In the Name of Jesus Christ, the King of Kings, the Lord of all Lords, we turn to you as the highest and last resort on earth.

Through God's mercy we have learned to know the truth of that which our Lord Jesus spoke concerning the Kingdom of God, (Gos. Luk. 17-20-21) that it does not come with outer manifestations and show, but within in the spirit and hearts of the believers. Thus we have also experienced it in our own case, since we became converted to the faith of the Gospel and to obedience to the truth, and therefore we have withdrawn from public, churchly pomp, and have also submitted the reasons of our faith in doctrine and conduct in writing to the sovereign Home Office.

Thereupon our devotional periods were forbidden, under the allegation that they were of a political nature; and by the threat of many punishments and annoyances we have been faced with the alternative, either to deny our most holy faith or to emigrate for the sake of the same.

Now before we choose the latter, we take the liberty, as a last attempt to appear before Your Majesty with the humble request, whether it is your sovereign will and unalterable wish, that we should have to leave the country for the sake of our faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. We do not struggle against evil and oppression; we accept it as something permitted by God, if it has to be thus; only we did not want to let the reproach rest upon us that we had not done everything that might be useful thereto.

In this respect we have a precedent in the case of our fellow-believers in the Grand Duch Baden, who were also oppressed and persecuted by subordinate authorities; and when they applied directly to the ruler, help was granted them that they received the right to hold free meetings and enjoyment of civil rights.

Should we persuade ourselves that a similar thing would be denied us in Bavaria, just because we stand on the foundation of God's Word and not on the statues of men? Yes, if it is true, that a person may no longer believe freely and without hindrance, in the Lord Jesus Christ, nor confess the Son of God without persecution, as happened formerly among the Jews and the Heathen, then we will gladly suffer because of that for God's sake, Who through His glory and power has called us for communion and imitation of the Lord Who was numbered among the evildoers, in Whom the Established Church pretends to believe. But if she believes in Him, why, then, does she persecute us for this, that we believe in Him with our whole heart, and confess Him as our Lord through the Holy Spirit?

(1. Corinth. 12-3) if we are persecuted by the church for that reason, then we ought rightfully to separate from her. If we did some evil, then, the secular government would have the right to interfere by means of its authority; but if we do good, then we suffer for righteousness' sake and are participants in the beatitudes of the Lord, (Gosp. St. Matth. 5-10-12).

But, with that, according to the admonition of the Apostle Paul (1 Tim. 2-2-3), we do not cease to pray to God for our esteemed sovereign and for all who have been placed in authority over us, that God may direct their hearts, that we, as loyal subjects, may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and respectability.

With this assurance we remain in deepest respect and submission to your Royal Majesty, devoted suppliants:

3—Valentine Wick (2) son of Valentine Wick and Catherine Krazeisen. Born April 10, 1817, Eckwersheim, Alsass-Lorraine, France. Died March 30, 1888. Married Anna M. Burger, born November 2, 1815, Alsass-Lorraine, France. Died May 30, 1890.

While living in France Valentine Wick did some farming and weaving. One of the crops he raised was hemp (a plant with fibrous bark used for cordage). He had a machine with which he prepared the fibrous rind for spinning, his wife did all the spinning and then he wove the threads into materials, this was the way they made all the materials the family needed for their own use.

In the year 1868, Mr. Lung, (the Minister and Elder of the Church in Strassburg) encouraged and advised this family to emigrate to America, because of the great unrest in France and Germany at that time.

At first they planned to send only their son Valentine, but he refused to leave the family and go alone. After hearing that the Herbold family, (close friends of the Wick's) were planning to emigrate, they decided it would be best if all the family would go with them. All were willing to follow this plan except Eva, the eldest daughter, but she too was finally persuaded to accompany them.

In the fall of 1868, the Wick and Herbold families arrived in Illinois. Herbold's were relatives of George Welk's so they stayed with them until able to establish a home of their own. The Wick's father, mother and two youngest daughters, Anna and Caroline, were cared for in the Kasper Koch home until such time when they found a home of their own to live in. The older children were all able to find some work to do, some in the Tremont area and others in Morton.

The parents, with the younger daughters, first lived in a log-cabin south of Tremont, near the Mackinaw river; next they rented a small tract of land south of Dillion, Illinois, some time later moving to a place north of Dillon near the Dillon Cemetery.

After retiring the parents made their home with Valentine Wick a son, and Salome Jacob a daughter. Both died in Morton, Illinois and are buried in the old Morton Cemetery south of Morton, Illinois. One son George, died in infancy and is buried in France.

LIFE

Life is like a jorney taken on a train
With a pair of travelers at each window pane
I may sit beside you all the journey through
Or I may sit elsewhere never knowing you.
But if fate should mark me to sit by your side,
Let's be pleasant travelers; it's so short a ride!

Dr. I.B. Howell
